Extendable Towel Rail

STAINLESS STEEL, BLACK · BATHROOM ACCESSORIES

A wall-mounted towel rail that slides out when you need the length and pushes back when you do not. Stainless steel with a wood-effect finish, so it suits a bathroom that is not all chrome.

AVAILABLE OPTIONS

Size: 40 cm, 60 cm

KEY FEATURES

FINISHES	SIZE	SIZE
Stainless steel with a wood-effect finish	Slides out for extra hanging length	Two widths: 40 cm and 60 cm

MORE DETAILS

Suitable for: bathroom, en-suite, cloakroom, utility room.

WHY EXTENDABLE

A fixed rail is either too short for two towels or too long for the wall it is on. This one is neither: closed it takes up its own width, extended it gives the separation towels need to actually dry rather than sitting damp against each other.
