Gesture Control Table Lamp with LED Globe, Spiral Arm Design

TABLE LAMP

Introducing the Spiral Arm Gesture Control Table Lamp – a perfect blend of modern design and cutting-edge technology. Featuring a sleek, minimalist style with two platform surfaces connected by a striking spiral arm, this table lamp brings both form and function to any space. At the centre of the spiral, a glowing sphere emits a soft, ambient light, creating a calming atmosphere for your home or office. With innovative gesture control, you can turn the lamp on or off simply by waving your hand above the top platform. For an added touch of magic, hover your hand over the lamp and watch as it starts to rotate, casting dynamic light patterns across the room.
